July 10, 2019

The meeting was called to order by Pat Hall at 5:05 pm.

Members present:

Sharon Reeves, Mason Steele, Pat Hall, Rod MacLean, Patricia Grooms, Lisa Waring, Vic Lancaster, Mayor Pro Tem Mike Mitchell, Board Liaison and Chancer McLaughlin, Staff Liaison

Members absent: None

Visitors:

Josie Mitchell, Jane Starling and Fred Starling

Agenda:

Rod MacLean made a motion to approve the agenda and it was approved unanimously as written.

Old Business:

Minutes:

Mason Steele made a motion to approve the minutes and the minutes were approved unanimously as written.

Pat Caulder Award:

Pat Hall gave an update on the Pat Caulder Award. Maxie Dove from Parks and Recreation has recreated the Pat Caulder Award plaque and has selected the 2018 and 2019 winners. One rode in the 4th of July parade and the other will ride in the Christmas parade. They will both be recognized by the board at the first meeting in August.

New Business:

Yard Sale:

Mason Steele presented ideas about an annual city-wide yard sale. After much discussion, the group decided to work towards having an annual city-wide yard sale. It was stated that we will have to get approval from the board to have the event and suggested that it be in the morning in connection with Ole Mills Day on October 5th with proceeds from permits going to the HPC. Sharon Reeves agreed to work on a design for the logo for our t-shirts instead of having a logo contest.

Chancer gave an update by the town manager on the Parish House concerning the inspection, progress on the Trade St. Museum and the Heritage Park Master Plan. The board will hear from the McAdams Group on Monday July 15, 2019 as it is on their regular agenda.

Rod MacLean said he will get with Drew Holland concerning online sale of brick pavers.

Commission Historic Gift:

Jane Starling and her husband Fred Starling of Cedar Creek were in attendance. Mr. Starling worked with Dixie Yarns for many years. He gave a brief presentation to the group and presented the HPC with a box of historical information and Dixie Yarn magazines that he received from Mr. John Underwood.

Adjourn:

Sharon Reeves made a motion to adjourn and the meeting was adjourned 6:45 PM.
